

HIV in the Developing World: Analysis, Design, Development

Martin Foreman - consultant

February 2008

a longer version of this cv, including bibliography, is online at www.martinforeman.com/hiv/hivcv.htm

Martin Foreman has worked in HIV in the developing world since 1986. Currently based in London, Martin offers technical support in the following areas:

Themes: Gender; Sexuality: behaviour, identity, socioeconomic context; Sex work: female, male, transgender; Uniformed services & conflict; Stigma and discrimination; Access to treatment and services; Media

Implementation: Project design and development; Project assessment; Monitoring and evaluation; Publication writing and editing; Research and analysis; Seminar / workshop organisation, presentation and rapporteurship

Languages:	English:	native
	French, Portuguese, Spanish	fluent
	German, Italian	approaching fluent
	Thai	conversational

Primary Consultancies 2002 - 2007

Family Health International

- proposal development; member of team preparing Thailand country application to Global Fund to fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria
- project review: participation of young people in assessing reproductive health services and developing appropriate policies
- research & analysis: editing of situational report on MSM in four cities in the Philippines
- project development: participation of young people in assessing reproductive health services and developing appropriate policies
- project development: military, men who have sex with men, media, East Timor
- 4 country comparative analysis, sex between men
- assessing needs for a comprehensive HIV strategy for men who have sex with men / NGO capacity & activity assessment, Thailand

Healthlink Worldwide / Panos Institute, UK

- writing Combat AIDS (see bibliography)

Human Security Centre, Canada

- analysis of HIV and conflict
- analysis of ill health and conflict

International HIV/AIDS Alliance, UK

- report of meeting on drug use harm reduction programmes in Asia
- review of access to services, Northern Thailand
- editing resource book for working with sex workers
- literature review of stigma towards men who have sex with men in HIV prevention programmes
- manuals for working with men who have sex with men
- planning Latin American workshop on obstacles to effective prevention projects for men who have sex with men

Pan American Health Organization, USA

- overview of stigma in health services

Panos Institute, UK

- writing resource papers for developing country media on access to antiretroviral therapies
- rapporteuring Panos / UNFPA meeting on Communication for Development

POLICY Project, Vietnam

- briefing papers on men who have sex with men, male clients of female sex workers

UNFPA, Rwanda

- organising and facilitating national workshop on IEC materials in Reproductive Health
- drafting five-year Advocacy sub-programme

Career Development 1975 - 2002

1975	MA, University of Edinburgh, UK <ul style="list-style-type: none">• English Language and Linguistics
1975 - 1986	Teacher of English as a Foreign Language <ul style="list-style-type: none">• UK, Greece, Brazil
1986 - 1991	Panos Institute, London <ul style="list-style-type: none">• began as researcher, ended as programme director
1992 - 1994	Condomania <ul style="list-style-type: none">• established UK's first specialist condom retailer and wholesaler
1994 - 1997	Panos Institute, Washington DC <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Programme Director
1998 - 2001	Panos Institute, London <ul style="list-style-type: none">• AIDS Programme Director
2001 - present	Freelance Consultant <ul style="list-style-type: none">• see client list above